

Famine Wiki and Survey Rubric

	4	3	2	1
Content	Our wiki includes extensive general information and definitions related to famine. We describe a well-reasoned rationale for providing relief to countries experiencing famine with abundant supporting evidence. We prioritize the list of countries we investigated using facts to justify our ranking.	Our wiki includes general information and definitions related to famine. We describe a rationale for providing relief with some supporting evidence. We prioritize the list of countries we investigated and explained our reasoning.	Our wiki includes some information and definitions related to famine. We attempt to describe a rationale for providing relief, but our rationale is not well-thought-out and our supporting evidence is rather weak. We try to prioritize the countries we investigated, but our reasoning is flawed.	Our wiki includes sketchy information and weak definitions related to famine. Our rationale is missing or unsupported by evidence. We do not prioritize the countries we investigated.
References	Our wiki includes an extensive list of categorized, relevant Web sites with brief descriptions for each resource.	Our wiki includes a list of categorized, relevant Web sites.	Our wiki includes a list of Web sites.	Our wiki does not include references to relevant Web sites.
Organization	Our wiki is well-organized, with a home page that describes the purpose and content of the wiki and provides links to move around the site. Our links allow readers to navigate around our site easily.	Our wiki has a home page that describes the content and provides links to move around the site. Our links allow readers to navigate around our site.	Our wiki has a home page and provides some links to move around the site, but the purpose of the site may not be clear. Some of our links do not work.	Our wiki is missing a home page. Most of our links do not work.
Graphic Elements	We use images and other Web elements to make our site engaging and to communicate our message.	We use images and other Web elements to make our site engaging.	We use images and other Web elements, but they are sometimes not appropriate or detract from our purpose.	Our wiki is almost all text, or we use images and other Web elements that are distracting.

Survey	Our survey collects extensive information about readers' feelings about famine, the responsibility of the United States toward famine relief, and the quality of our wiki. Our questions are fair, unbiased, and designed to collect a wide variety of points of view about famine.	Our survey collects information about readers' feelings about famine and the responsibility of the United States toward famine relief. Our questions are fair and unbiased.	Our survey collects information about readers' feelings and opinions about famine, but does not address the role of the United States specifically. Some of our questions are leading and only allow particular points of view.	Our survey collects information that is only weakly related to the role of the United States in famine relief. Most of our questions are leading and allow only one point of view.
---------------	--	--	--	---