

Group Sign Off Sheet for Slide Show

Components	Explanation	Sign Off by All Group Members All group members must sign in each category indicating that the group has discussed each of the components for your proposal.
Cost analysis from math	Statistics are accurate and logical. Costs given are researched. Proposal is cost efficient.
Historical data from social studies	Historical data is used to support the rationale and relevance for the proposal.
Scientific explanations for waste management	Proposal shows knowledge of the recycling process, how a landfill works, and how energy sources are used.
Rationale	Rationale is given as to why a new plan is needed.
Uniqueness to environment	Proposal is unique to the school or community and takes into consideration the unique environmental features of the school or community.
Projection details	A projection is given as to how the proposal will help solve the current crisis with detail and numbers.
Data from language arts	Survey data is used to explain the current habits of the community or school, and interpretations and analysis of the data is used as a rationale.	