

Virtual Dressing Room

The Virtual Dressing Room demonstrates an exciting new consumer shopping experience. Your avatar looks like you, tracks your movements and lets you try on multiple outfits. In the future, with this technology we can help eliminate guesswork on clothing sizing by taking advantage of modern 3D cameras. The demo combines body tracking, cloth simulation and realistic rendering to make the shopper feel like they are modeling clothing in front of a real mirror.